7) ☐Yes ☐No Have you completed the continuing education hours required for the renewal of your license? The annual continuing education requirement is 15 professional development hours, with at least one hour of them being related to professional ethics. Certain exemptions are available.
Note: TBPG may audit your response to this section to confirm compliance with TBPG Rules. Continuing Education rules are found in §851.32.

SECTION VI. Affirmation.
According to TBPG Rule 851.28(e) and (f), an individual applying for renewal of an expired P.G. license must submit a written statement affirming whether he or she performed or offered to perform non-exempt geoscientific services for the public during the time their license was expired. There is no grace period for practicing with an expired license.

8) At this time, is your P.G. license expired (past its expiration date)? Please note: If your license is one or more days past its expiration date, it is expired. ☐ Yes ☐ No

If your answer is yes to question 8, please answer question 9:

9) If your license is expired, have you offered or performed non-exempt geoscience services for the public in Texas during the time that your license was expired? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If your answer is yes to question 9, TBPG will contact you for more information.

Please note: Having offered and/or performed non-exempt geoscientific services while a P.G. license is expired is a violation each day that it occurs, and could be subject to disciplinary action as determined by the Board. Upon receipt of this form, TBPG staff will open a complaint against any individuals or firms doing so, as appropriate. However, the Board will consider all factual circumstances surrounding the possible violation(s) in its determination of whether it finds violations and what disciplinary actions to take, if any.
